Task

The extract finishes with Bilbo having revealed one of the three things that he wishes to tell the guests at his party.

"I hope you are all enjoying yourselves as much as I am. Tonight, I have three things to tell you all dear friends. First of all, I must tell you that I am immensely fond of you all, and that eleventy-one years is too short a time to live among such excellent and admirable hobbits."

Continue Bilbo's speech in which you explain what you think he wants to reveal to his assembled guests in his speech.

You might want to include:

- The way in which the hobbits respond
- A description of the setting
- How excited Bilbo is

- Both dialogue and description
- Why these two revelations are important
